

Australia's National Beef Exposition
7 May to 12 May 2012

James Lawrence Pavilion
Bos Indicus Room

Tuesday 8 May 2012
12.00 to 1.00 pm

Advances in Leucaena production for northern Australia

Hosted by

This seminar will provide you with:

- Best management practices for productive and sustainable Leucaena production
- Latest update on recent production, economic and environmental research findings.
- Local producer(s) details of their own experiences and production from Leucaena pastures.

Topics and speakers include:

Leucaena best practice presented by Berry Reynolds, Leucaena Network

- Role of the network
- Activities for producers
- Code of practice

Latest developments in Leucaena production presented by Stuart Buck, DEEDI

- Research update; live weight gain, economics, establishment strategies
- New varieties
- Environmental benefits of leucaena
- Management of leucaena

Producer case studies – Presenter to be confirmed

- Geographical spread
- Differing production systems