

Australia's National Beef Exposition
7 May to 12 May 2012

James Lawrence Pavilion
Bos Taurus Room

Thursday 10 May 2012
2.00 pm – 5.00 pm

Succession Planning
Preparing for the next generation in your farming business

Hosted by

With extensive experience in their respective fields, Matthew Burgess and Dennis Hoiberg will discuss planning for a future without the farm from both a legal and emotional perspective. Matthew's interactive session will examine the legal aspects of succession planning, including the use of trusts for family enterprises and estate planning, while Dennis will outline effective strategies to deal with the emotional challenges of leaving the farm.

Matthew Burgess

As a Partner within leading law firm McCullough Roberston, Matthew specialises in tax, estate and succession planning for individuals and business owners. Over the years, he has also provided advice on general wealth, tax planning, as well as business sales, restructuring, mergers and acquisitions.

Dennis Hoiberg

Dennis is a highly experienced Organisational Consultant who brings a uniquely engaging and practical presentation style to his sessions. For over 30 years, he has helped individuals, businesses and rural communities develop emotional resilience strategies to overcome many of the challenges faced by the agricultural sector.

Chairperson

Greg Leahy, Head of Agribusiness, Suncorp Bank