FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Beef2027 Camping

These FAQs provide practical information about camping for Beef2027. Beef Australia may update this document as additional questions arise. If your questions are not addressed below, please contact the Beef Australia team on (07) 4922 2989.

What camping options are available at Beef2027?

Tent City returns to Beef2027, offering a convenient and cost-effective option for visitors wanting to stay close to all the action over 3, 4 or 7 nights. Two locations are on offer close to the action at Rockhampton Showgrounds; Alf Kele Memorial Park, or Rockhampton Ski Gardens.

Each location will have the same offering and includes tent, beds, linen, carpet floor, internal tent light, 24v festoon style lighting outside, access to amenities (toilets & shower), and a communal camp kitchen.

Power (at Alf Kele Memorial Park and Ski Gardens) and camping parking (at Alf Kele Memorial Park only) will be available for purchase separately at time of ticketing.

Camping options are also available at Paradise Lagoons, or through the Hipcamp and Camplify websites. Find out more on each of these options on our website, underneath '[Accommodation - Beef Australia Ltd]'.

When can I book camping?

Camping will be on sale when event tickets go on sale; in October for Beef Australia Members and Partners, and November for the general public.
Accommodation in Rockhampton is limited; we encourage you to book your camp sites as soon as possible.

Where are the Campgrounds?

Beef Australia offers two official campgrounds on the Southside of Rockhampton and in close proximity to the Showgrounds. These campgrounds are run by Tent City Hire and are at the following locations:

- Alf Kele Memorial Park Sir Raymond Huish Drive, Rockhampton, Wandal 4700
- Ski Gardens 30 Harman Street, Wandal 4700

Can I select my camp sites?

No, if you would like to camp with your family/friends please complete your Tent booking under the same name in one booking transaction.

Will my camping ticket get me into the event?

No, your camping ticket does not include general admission to Beef 2027. This will need to be purchased separately.

Will there be security?

While campground supervisors and security will do their best to ensure a safe and secure environment, we do recommend that guests take the precaution of securing items of value left inside or outside their tent during the day and overnight. The organiser shall not be liable for any loss, theft, injury or damages sustained entering or on the site.

Can I park at the Campgrounds?

Alf Kele Memorial Park – Limited car parking is available each night and a car parking ticket must be pre-purchased at time of booking. This car parking is for camping ticket holders only.
Ski Gardens – Parking is available outside the campgrounds. No car parking ticket required.

Can I drive and park beside my campsite

No, for health and safety reasons you are not permitted to drive near the campsites. At both locations your items must be walked from your parked vehicle location to your tent.

Alf Kele Memorial Park – there is a designated carparking area for pre-purchased car parking ticket holders which is in close proximity to your tent. As your vehicle is located separately to your site, you may drive your car and leave the campgrounds at any time if required. Although, at Alf Kele Memorial Park you are encouraged to park up and walk to the event and surrounds.

Rockhampton Ski Gardens – Carparking is located outside of the campgrounds.

Is there power at my site?

If you require power this must be purchased separately. 1x 10amp power will be available for purchase at the time of purchasing your camping ticket. An extension lead to your tent will also be provided. Please ensure any chargers or items plugged into power are tested and tagged prior to arrival or brand new.
